Kowloon City District Urban Renewal Forum
District Aspirations on Urban Renewal in Kowloon City –
Review and Prospects

Purpose

This paper seeks to brief Members of the Kowloon City District Urban Renewal Forum (“Kowloon City DURF”) on the attached Report on “District Aspirations on Urban Renewal in Kowloon City – Review and Prospects.” (“the Report”), which will initiate Members’ deliberation of the issue of urban renewal in Kowloon City District.

The Report

2. On the basis of the district-based report of “District Aspiration Study on Urban Renewal in Kowloon City district” that was completed by the Kowloon City District Council in early 2010 and by making reference to other relevant study reports and information, the Report (see Annex) seeks to update major baseline information; explore the opportunities and challenges that are likely to arise from urban renewal in Kowloon City district, and consolidate urban renewal aspirations expressed by locals through public engagement activities during the District Aspiration Study on Urban Renewal. The Report concludes by identifying several areas for Members’ consideration in the deliberation of the issue of urban renewal in the district.

Follow-up Work

3. Members are requested to note the contents of the Report on “District Aspirations on Urban Renewal in Kowloon City – Review and Prospects”. The Report will initiate deliberation of the issue of urban renewal in Kowloon City district to facilitate formulation of a sustainable urban renewal blueprint for the district.
